

Marriage and the Orthodox Life

with Dr. David and Dr. Mary Ford

SATURDAY JUNE 4th

10 AM – 4:30 PM

Seminar Topics

Session 1, with Dr. David C. Ford: "Looking at Marriage from a Patristic Perspective Through the Centuries (from St. Ignatius to Contemporary Holy Elders)."

Session 2, with Dr. Mary Ford: "Looking at How Logismoi Can Cause Problems in Marriage, and How to Deal With Them."

Session 3, with Dr. David C. Ford: "Making the Home a Little Church, Through the Wisdom of St. John Chrysostom."

RSVP by May 27th (space is limited)

(click here to register <https://saintjonah.org/event/marriage-seminar-2022/>)

\$25/Couple or \$15/Single childcare and activities will be provided for ages 8 and under (must register age(s), name(s) of children, and if special diet is required)

Light breakfast and hardy lunch will be provided

Brief Biography of the Speakers

Dr. David C. Ford and his wife Dr. Mary Ford are part of the Faculty at St. Tikhon's Orthodox Seminary and have been teaching at the Seminary since 1989. In addition to all their work at the Seminary and their scholarly publications, they have also developed and published a lengthy history curriculum for Orthodox parochial and home schools, which is being used by more than 200 families throughout the country in the shaping of the minds of their children.

The Fords co-authored the book Marriage as a Path to Holiness: Lives of Married Saints (1994, 2013).

